

I am a Wisconsin resident who is very happy over the current state law prohibiting telephone solicitations. Please leave our state law alone! The peace and quiet in my home has improved dramatically because of my state's no-call law. I would regret seeing the federal government interfere.